WHO WILL BE TO BLAME.

A few weeks ago we had an article in these columns pointing out what we considered a great mistake on the part of our school board in not seeing that the languages were taught in the high school grades at our school here. On that occasion we gave some reasons why we are of that opinion. In dealing with this same question only the other day, Dr. Peter Sandiford of the University of Toronto, said some very plain things about the apparent indifference of school boards and school principals in Canada in the matter of teaching the languages. He points out that in England, France, Germany and Japan children commence taking up the languages at 12 years of age, and he maintains that this is the very best time for taking them, as after fourteen the child has lost the instinct for language study.

There is no doubt that Dr. Sandiford is correct in this, as any who take the trouble to observe must have noticed that the younger foreigners who come to this country learn our language much more readily than do their parents or elder brothers and sisters. But apart from this line of argument altogether Redcliff should have the languages taught in this school if for no other reason than that we are paying for that service and are not getting it. If Principal Liggett, for eighteen hundred dollars a year, is not qualified to take up the subjects other principals are taking up for a much smaller salary, then we should get a principal that is. If he is qualified he should be compelled to deliver the goods when the town is paying for them.

It's all nonsense to say there isn't time to teach the languages or that the pupils don't want them. How do other schools similarly situated find the time? Since when has it been left to the pupils to say what shall and what shall not be on the curriculum?

Few school pupils have any definite plans for the future, but how many after they have left school for a few years, decide on taking up some kind of a profession. This has been the experience of some of the very best professional men in all times today. How will it be when some of the Redcliff boys and girls of today arrive at that stage and find they will have to put in two or three years studying what they should have had at school, before they can enter college? They may be discouraged. Then who will be to blame? Will it be the boy who didn't want to or will it be those who withheld the opportunity?

It certainly is a black-eye to the town in its present stage of activities in other directions to be behind smaller towns in educational matters, as good educational facilities are the very best assets any town can have.

The school board has acted wisely in having Mr. Fowler's pupils moved over to the room in the Red Deer instead of the younger children. In this way the room separated from the main building will have the supervision of a male teacher.

ON THE OTHER HAND.

Not long ago the Liberal convention at Red Deer showed to the outside world that there were some of that party stripe in that constituency who placed their party schemes above their country's needs. At that time there were, no doubt, thousands of "Conservatives" throughout the country who raised hands and voice heavenward and said, "Thank God we are not as other men are." Their attitude of thankfulness, however, was short-lived for only the other day some Conservatives of Lethbridge constituency followed the example of the Red Deer Liberals by bringing out a party candidate to oppose W. A. Buchanan.

The conditions in both constituencies are almost identical. The only difference is that in Red Deer the Liberals turned down a Liberal because they thought he went too far, while in Lethbridge the Conservatives objected to a Liberal because he didn't go far enough. Apart from this, however, both Mr. Buchanan and Dr. Clarke are men of the same calibre. They have both been sitting members at Ottawa through the majority of the period in the country's history. They have both been put to the test and have proven that they can get above and beyond party politics when the country's welfare is at stake. Mr. Buchanan has represented this constituency at Ottawa for the past six years and the fact that he made good at the crucial moment ought to be a guarantee that he will play the game fairly to a finish at this time when party lines are supposed to be obliterated.

THE FOOD PROBLEM.

Every Canadian owes it to the Empire to Canada and to himself to understand the essential facts of the food situation. He should know what the problems are and what efforts are being made to solve them. Food control under present conditions, is an attempt to organize the food resources of this country so as to aid most effectively in the conduct of the war. And for the organization of such food resources public opinion must be educated first to the facts and then to a personal application of those facts in the life of the individual.

We have been told that the world food situation is grave and we dismiss the matter lightly. There is a great shortage of food in Europe and without importations from America, Europe would soon be at the point of starvation. Speaking in the British House of Lords in July of this year, Lord Rhonda, the British Food Controller, said: "Four-fifths of our wheat supplies come from overseas; without their supplies we should starve."

The nations of western Europe allied against Germany during the next twelve months will require no less than 577,000,000 bushels of wheat, even with the surplus of most rigorous economy in its consumption. Canada and the United States have a wheat deficit of 400,000,000 bushels in the amount required from North America for the allies and for European neutrals.

This will give some idea of the urgent need for food conservation on this continent if we are to play our part in the great war to a final and successful conclusion. In dealing with the situation a circular from the food controller's office ends up like this: "If you cannot fight you can at least help to feed the fighting man. The people of Belgium suffered for you; will you not make a small sacrifice for them? France has shed its life blood; will you not eat oatmeal or corn multiple one day in three or four instead of wheat breakfast food or white rolls in order to feed France? Great Britain is bearing the brunt of the battle for the Empire; will you not forgo meaty occasionally in order that the people of Britain may not hunger? Will you not eat substitutes for white bread for the sake of the boys at the front? Will you save some pound of food every winter? That is the real challenge of food control to you. Remember, if needed food supplies are to be saved, every individual Canadian must see to it that he eats less beef, bacon and wheat flour, every day and at every meal.

The recipe for Whole Wheat Mullins and Cream of Corn Soup, mentioned above, are as follows:—

Whole Wheat Mullins:
1½ cups of whole wheat flour.
1 cup of white flour.
1 cup of warm milk.
½ cup of molasses.
¼ teaspoon of soda.
2 tablespoons of melted lard.
Mix and sift dry ingredients; add the milk to the molasses, and mix with dry ingredients. Bake at 350° F. until the mixture is dry.

Cream of Corn Soup:
1 quart of skimmed milk.
2 cups of corn.
2 tablespoons of butter.
Season to taste with salt, pepper and grated onion. Make a thick sauce of the milk, butter, flour and seasonings. If corn on the cob is used, cut from the cob and cook, and add to the milk, or thicken and serve very hot.

Secretary Lane's View Of The Situation

Secretary Lane, of the United States, told the National Chamber of Commerce, assembled at Atlantic City, "We make war in France but we may not be compelled to do battle here. Let Germany have Canada or Mexico or even Cuba, and we would go to our daily work like the Pilgrims Fathers with our guns in our hands. It may be hard that the clerk must be taken from his desk, the lawyer from his case, the fireman from his engine, the farmer from his plow, the mechanic from his lathe—but if they did not go now, they and their sons, other clerks and lawyers and farmers and mechanics, would live one long dread day of fear. This is our war."

And what we Americans do well to remember in October, 1917, said Collier's Weekly, is that we are mighty lucky to have loyal allies fighting our battles while we learn how.

The Peruvian minister to Germany has handed to the government a note announcing the rupture of relations between Peru and Germany and also has requested his passport.

Snow, accompanied by a high wind, fell in Winnipeg early this morning.

Pay Will Be The Same

Men selected under the Military Service Act will receive the same pay as those now on active service receive. Pay will start from the time a man reports for duty. Money from the Patriotic Fund and Separation Allowance will also be available for selected men.

Canadian soldiers are well paid. The fact that wages in Canada are generally higher than those paid in Europe is recognized in the system of remuneration for men on active service. Clothing and all equipment in addition to food is also supplied to the Canadian soldier, leaving him with no expense except personal incidentals.

The rate of pay for men in the Canadian Expeditionary Force, other than commissioned officers, is as follows:

Warrior Officers	Pay	Allowance
Regimental Sergeant Major, if not a	1.85	20 "
Regimental Sergeant	1.50	10 "
Company Sergeant	1.25	20 "
Company Sergeant	1.00	20 "
Company Sergeant	.80	20 "
Company Sergeant or Staff Sergeant	.60	20 "
Second, Third, or Fourth Sergeant	.50	20 "
Sergeant	.35	15 "
Corporal	.15	10 "
Lance Corporal	.10	10 "
Bombardier, or Second Corporal	.05	10 "
Transmitting, Signaller, and Drummer	.05	10 "
Pioneer, Gunner, Driver	.00	10 "
Sapper, Bagman, etc.	.00	10 "

As in the case of those already gone overseas, Separation Allowances will be available for those dependent for livelihood upon selected men. The Separation Allowance is $20.00 a month for the rank and file, $25.00 for sergeants and staff-sergeants and $30.00 for warrant officers. The experience is that many men can afford to assign half their pay to dependents, in addition.

A considerable number of men who have enlisted in the Canadian forces have found themselves better under the army rule of pay, which is granted in addition to board, lodging, clothing, equipment, transportation, etc., than they were while in civilian positions. Their wants are provided for, and they receive a steady addition to the bank account each month.

Taft Changes Peace Resolution For War

Charitably as well as democracy gives a debt to former President William H. Taft for his fine championing of their joint cause at the general conference of Unitarian and other Christian churches last week at Montreal. Mr. Taft stepped adroitly in the path of a pacifist resolution and turned most of the 400 delegates resolutely toward war to a finish against Kaiserism.

The Unitarians, like the other denominations, have been rent with discord over the war, and numerous peace fanatics in their fold have been doing unconscious service for Germany. They seized the big opportunity of the annual conference of their church to get ready a creed of cowardice and compromise for the endorsement of the faithful. Before they could launch this traitorous scheme, the most distinguished Unitarian present, Hon. William H. Taft, delivered the convention's opening address, and effectually upped the game of the pacifist forces, turning a minority for inflexible warfare into a cheering enthusiastic majority.

Mr. Taft accomplished this without rhetorical flourishes for Maude Gwynne's eloquence. He set the blooded and bloody facts of the European situation and described the efforts of the criminal German junkies to conquer and subdue Belgium, France and Britain. He pointed out that after three years, although Germany's original plans have been defeated, the war has not been won for the Allies. The Hun, he said, holds Belgium, part of France, Servia and Roumania, Poland and the Baltic provinces of Russia.

"Peace now," said Mr. Taft, "even if made on the status quo basis, would be a failure for the allies. Arguments would continue for the next year, and this war would have been fought in vain. He who proposes peace now, therefore, either does not see the stakes for which the allies are fighting, or wishes German autonomy to control the destinies of all of us as to peace or war."

The former president told his co-religionists that they must range themselves against "peace at this juncture—whether made in Socialist councils, or by Pope Benedict," if they really desired the world made safe for democracy.

In Mr. Taft's large and intellectual audience were many clever orators and writers whose attitude in this world crisis she steadfastly helped the Hun. Men like the Rev. John Haynes Holmes of New York, a preacher of wide influence, who opposed the war, and the President's stand, and the draft, and the united defense of this country, found themselves suddenly separated from their friends. But there was no getting away from the logic of the ex-president. The assembly voted heavily for war, and when it broke up its members went their ways to boost war in hundreds of pulpits east and west, north and south.

Big Naval Battle In Expected Soon

A report coming from the New York Herald says: "The United States government is momentarily expecting cable messages which will relate to a naval operation of unprecedented magnitude in or near the North Sea—one of such importance that the whole aspect of the war may be changed. That is the information that has come to the Herald from a high and unquestionable authority."

"There is reason to believe that the long expected 'decisive move' by Germany has been started and that it is being resisted with all the power that the great fleets of the allies can bring into play."

Biggest War Ship Program in World

America leaped to the forefront with the biggest warship program in the world last Monday. With the setting of contracts for the construction of at least 100 additional destroyers, the navy has 787 warships of all types and classes building or on contract for.

In making this announcement, Secretary Daniels said none of the vessels have been completed within the last few weeks and are now in service and that the remainder of the program is being rushed. The total cost is estimated at $1,100,000,000.

EMBARGO ON U. S. CORN. In order to prevent speculation, the United States food administration has prohibited the export of corn except under license. The Canadian food controller has taken steps to facilitate importation into Canada, and the Washington authorities will increase upon his recommendation. Persons or firms requiring to import corn may obtain application forms from the officers of the food controller Ottawa.

Xmas Parcels Should Be Shipped Early

Miss Kathleen Maloney, one of the chief clerks of the records office, who has returned from a visit to England, and to the Canadian bases in France, tells of the way in which parcels to soldiers are handled. In the month of August alone, she said, 100,000 letters and 25,000 parcels passed through the Canadian depot in France. Miss Maloney urges an early preparation for the Christmas rush.

Unless parcels are dispatched at the earliest possible date, they may be delayed till after the New Year. Perishable foodstuffs should not be sent, as almost without exception, they arrive in very bad condition.

U. S. Will Control All Staple Foods

Virtually all the staple foods consumed by the American people will be put under government control on November 1st.

The food administration announced that within a few days President Wilson will issue an executive order requiring that manufacturers and distributors of some 20 fundamental foods, operate under license restrictions designed to prevent unreasonable profits and to stop hoarding. Regulations will be prescribed for meat packers, old storage houses, millers, canners, elevators, grain dealers and wholesalers and retailers doing a business of more than $100,000 annually in the commodities to be named.

HUNS ARE FAST LOSING MAN POWER

Germany's military strength now shows a clear decrease for the first time since the war began, according to a review heard on executive order requiring that manufacturers and distributors of some 20 fundamental foods, operate under license restrictions designed to prevent unreasonable profits and to stop hoarding. Regulations will be prescribed for meat packers, old storage houses, millers, canners, elevators, grain dealers and wholesalers and retailers doing a business of more than $100,000 annually in the commodities to be named.

Rain Checks Fight On Western Front

Comparatively little fighting action is in progress on any of the fronts, except in the nature of reciprocal bombardments. In Flanders, Thursday, both the British and French troops kept their trenches, neither making attacks nor being forced to sustain counter-offensives against the new positions they held as a result of the drive of Tuesday. The big guns of both sides, however, were shelling opposing positions vigorously—those of the allies in work of destruction and those of the Germans in the nature of disturbers of the peace of the ground, and it probably will be several days before the British and French again jointly unleash their men for another raid against the Germans. Wednesday night the French repulsed a heavy counter-attack east of Brabant. The Germans during this time let the British severely alone with their infantry but buried masses of shells into their line.

High Tribute to Canadian Soldiers

In a thanksgiving sermon in the American Presbyterian church in Montreal Rev. C. W. Gordon (Ralph Corry) paid the following tribute to the Canadian soldiers in connection with several causes for gratitude which he dealt with in connection with the war.

"We are thankful that the moral fibre of our people has shown itself to be so splendidly firm. For the Canadian soldiers are made up of men for whom we ought to be profoundly grateful. They are clean men; they are good living men; they are worthy of the homes from which they have come, and they have not forgotten those homes, and they are not going to be unworthy of them. I have had the opportunity of seeing a great many of them, both in England and in France, and we have a right here in Canada to be thankful that our boys are just as good and many are better than they were at home."

COMMISSION CUTS

DOWN FREIGHT RATES.
Finding that there is discrimination in placing a freight charge of two cents per 100 pounds on grain coming by water from the west to Lake Huron and Georgian bay west to ports and also to Kingston and thence by rail to the mill, instead of one cent under alleged similar circumstances way commissioners have decided that "order should go against the Canadian Pacific for the establishment of the one cent milling in transit charge on western grain ex-lake."
